Massachusetts Library Club

AT

FALMOUTH, MASSACHUSETTS

June 15–16, 1905

FALMOUTH PUBLIC LIBRARY

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Boston party will leave the South Terminal Station on June 15, at 9.08 A. M., and will return on Friday from Woods Hole at 4.22 P. M., reaching Boston at 6.52 P. M. As the summer schedule of the N. Y., N. H., & Hartford R. R. does not go into effect until June 11, the hours given here should be verified after that date.

The headquarters of the Club will be at Terrace Gables Hotel at Falmouth Heights. Write to Mrs. W. L. Draper, Falmouth, for a room, naming a possible room-mate, as it may not be practicable to assign single rooms to all. The rate will be $2.00 a day.

Arrangement has been made with T. L. Swift to take passengers to and from Terrace Gables at a fare of 10 cents each way.

On Friday morning the party will drive to Woods Hole to visit the Marine Biological Laboratory and the Station of the U. S. Fish Commission. (Fare 50 cents.) Dinner may be had at the Avery House for 50 cents.

The railroad fare from Boston to Falmouth, and return from Woods Hole will be about $2.40. Tickets should be bought of the Secretary on the train.

Please fill out and mail the enclosed postal immediately.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Boston party will leave the South Terminal Station on June 15, at 9.08 A. M., and will return on Friday from Woods Hole at 4.22 P. M., reaching Boston at 6.52 P. M. As the summer schedule of the N. Y., N. H., & Hartford R. R. does not go into effect until June 11, the hours given here should be verified after that date.

The headquarters of the Club will be at Terrace Gables Hotel at Falmouth Heights. Write to Mrs. W. L. Draper, Falmouth, for a room, naming a possible room-mate, as it may not be practicable to assign single rooms to all. The rate will be $2.00 a day.

Arrangement has been made with T. L. Swift to take passengers to and from Terrace Gables at a fare of 10 cents each way.

On Friday morning the party will drive to Woods Hole to visit the Marine Biological Laboratory and the Station of the U. S. Fish Commission. (Fare 50 cents.) Dinner may be had at the Avery House for 50 cents.

The railroad fare from Boston to Falmouth, and return from Woods Hole will be about $2.40. Tickets should be bought of the Secretary on the train.

Please fill out and mail the enclosed postal immediately.

Jack's answer [illegible] was to glance around the poverty stricken garret, and at his own coarsely, quiet dress. The tears were in his eyes. "Were one now, come what will, father" he said, quietly. "That is the man at the door."

The man went to open it. "I'll balk them yet," he muttered. "I'll not drag Jack down." He came back in a moment, a huge yellow envelope in his hand. "He sent it in a letter. A man can't be arrested by letter! It may be"—turning it over. "What's this? God bless my soul, what's this? Why, it's no arrest!"

"Thank God for that!" muttered Proctor.

"Robert Standish is dead, Jack," pursing and muttering over a parchment sheet.

"Is he, sir," indifferently. Jack was standing awkwardly alone, for Madelin, whom [illegible] had [illegible] now, was engrossed in [illegible] up some drawing of hers, which she
